

College of International Security Affairs (CISA)

This program is provided by the National Defense University. The participants receives Master of Arts in Strategic Security Studies. This program introduces various critical and strategic thinking tools to analyze topics such as national-level strategy, joint doctrine and operations in order to anticipate and manage complexity, uncertainty, change, and surprise in the contemporary security environment. Blends innovative principles of security studies and research methodology with an Area of Concentration: such as International Security Studies, Irregular Warfare, Counterterrorism, Homeland Defense, or South and Central Asia.

Program Benefits

- The program prepares professionals to develop and implement national and international security strategies for use in conditions of peace, crisis, and war.
- Develop strategies to work with other agencies
- Understand and implement critical and strategic tools for national security

Topics Covered

- Foundations of Strategic Leadership
- International Security Studies
- Irregular Warfare
- Counterterrorism
- Homeland Defense

Who Should Enroll

GS 14 or above or equivalent

Location

Fort McNair, DC or Fort Bragg, NC

Course Dates

To Be Determined

Course Deadline

To Be Determined

Apply

Send nomination package to whs.hrd.iod@mail.mil

Continuous Learning Points Earned

1CLP per instruction hour. See CLP Table for details:

<http://www.dau.mil/clc/pages/pointcredit.aspx>